I am going to do anything that I haven't been able to do because of the coronavirus. First, I want to go traveling with my family and friends. The airlines going to foreign countries are paralyzed because of the virus. When the pandemic is over, I will go to Japan, USA, and any other countries. Second, I am going to attend school campus and enjoy a school life. Unfortunately, I have been on campus only three times this year. Even, as a freshman, I can't enjoy the year happily. I am looking forward to the day that I attend offline classes, make new friends and use the facilities on the campus. Last, I will play soccer again. I was a member of a soccer club, which was made up of my high school mates. We played soccer on every weekend, but it's been almost 10 months that we haven't been able to play soccer. The virus takes a lot of things away from our everyday lives. We don't want to wear masks and maintain social distancing anymore. We should be happy to hear that the pandemic is over. I wish that my three plans which I wrote over the paragraph come true. Hence, I will try hard to finish the pandemic and make my plans realize.

Never bend your head. Hold it high. Look the world straight in the eye. This is Helen-Keller's famous saying and the motto of my life. Due to coronavirus, we are having such a hard time. The hardest situation for me is that I cannot exercise because I cannot go to health club. Corona present me with a weight every day, and finally, I became fat. I lost my confidence, and I did not go outside because I do not want to talk with others. I have so many plans like playing the piano in church, or meeting my grandma. However, the most of this is diet. If this pandemic is over, I will diet and go to Australia with my best friend. I will remember Helen-Keller's saying. I will think this situation is still hopeful, and gain confidence. I think this sound trite to you, but nothing can beat me if I fill my heart with positive mind and confidence. I hope you remember her wise saying and do anything you want.

According to the news, a coronavirus vaccine seems to be arriving early next year. I think most people around the world are looking forward to living their normal lives again. If this issue is real, in 2021, I am going to follow out my plans that I made during the COVID-19 era. I have different plans for school, home and my personal aspects in 2021. First, this is about my school plan. Next year, I am a sophomore. This year, as I am a freshman, I've never been to Dongguk and enjoyed any activities as a university student. So, if normal university life is possible next year, I will study hard at Dongguk, and make as many friends as possible. I will do my best to communicate with many people at Dongguk. Next, I have some plans in my home next year. This year, my family members (including me) are busy to do their own work at home. So we haven't talked to each other and haven't had enough family time. If they go back to their work place normally and are going to be busy next year. I am going to tell my family members to have a conversation at least three times a week and have dinner together during the weekend. Last, my personal plan is going to travel abroad by myself next year. I've learned a lot of things in school and home, but I think traveling abroad alone and meeting many people and making mistakes can give me a big lesson. So, I want to travel to the U.S. next year using my English skills to deal with my daily lives. Overall, I wrote about my plans for when the pandemic is over. I hope the vaccine will arrive as soon as possible and I can follow my plans successfully.

The coronavirus gave me a lot of limits. Even though I am a freshman at university, I cannot take classes at school. I cannot meet friends face to face either. Instead, I just stay home. I hope that a coronavirus vaccine is developed and circulated to people all over the world. I already finished planning what to do for when the pandemic is over. First, I would like to apply for a part-time job. Actually I worked at fast food restaurant before the coronavirus got serious, but had to quit the work because my parents convinced me to do so. If the pandemic is over, I want to go back to my workplace and make money for a trip. After making money by doing part-time job, I am going to travel to Europe with my family. My grandparents get weaker now. I hope to travel to many countries in Europe and show them beautiful sights when they are healthy. Also, I have dreamed that I can have a cup of coffee at the street café in Paris. Lastly, I am planning to watch movies at the theater with “movie chatting” club members. In “moving chatting” club, members can talk about the particular movie and share opinions of the social problem related to the movie. We have a meeting once a week through an online platform. But I always think that it would be much better if we watch movies together and talk to each other directly. When the pandemic is over, it will be realized. I am planning to do a part-time job, travel to Europe with family, and go to the theater with club members for when the pandemic is over. I am ready to enjoy the time perfectly.

What do you want to do after coronavirus ends? This year, a lot of people have limitations for following out their plans because of the virus. However, when the vaccine has arrived, our daily life will change. In this essay, I'll explain my plan after corona in detail which can be categorized by going abroad, meeting friends, and doing school activities. First, I want to visit other countries next year. I hoped to go Europe this year, but my plan was cancelled due to the virus. During the trip, I want to meet new people and communicate with them fluently using my own speaking ability. It can be hard to achieve, but I'm sure that it will be a meaningful experience for me. Secondly, I'll meet my friends who live far away from me. The distance between my place and where most of my friends live is very far and it takes over two hours to get there. This distance and the virus has made it hard for us to meet, so we couldn't see each other after graduation. The last thing is participating in school activities. Students, including me this year haven't been able to do any offline activities, like school club or school studies. Especially, I'll join a school band club to practice the guitar with other club members. My goal is to go busking someday. These are my wish lists for next year if coronavirus ends: a trip to Europe, meeting old friends, and joining a school club. The things that I mentioned are not special or big things. It shows how COVID-19 virus affects our lives because in the daily lives we had before the virus spread finally became our hope or plan now.

The pandemic has limited a social life in 2020. Fortunately, creating a coronavirus vaccine is at the final stages now, so there are only few steps left to terminate the pandemic. It is very important to have a plan on your future, so that you can make your life more productive. I have two plans to fulfill in my upcoming life. First, join a social group. Recently, it is not recommended that an individual goes out and meets new people. This has led people's life being meaningless and gloomy. People have already wasted a lot of their time. Therefore, when the pandemic is over, I will interact with several people to find some meaning in my life or develop social relationships with them. Secondly, I will travel abroad. Staying in your country and not pursuing a change hinders people's viewpoints. It is crucial to have new experiences so that I can open up my third eye. And traveling to foreign countries by myself will help me to grow up and help me learn something from hardships or changes I would face. It is the easiest way to try strange things. In conclusion, you should prepare for your own life. Getting into social group and traveling to exotic countries are my plans to make my future more beneficial when the coronavirus vaccine arrives.

Due to coronavirus, many school programs are canceled and changed to be online. I am sorry that I can't participate in school programs in which I wanted. When I was a high school student, I wrote a bucket list that I hope to achieve during university. Thus, when the pandemic is over, I will enjoy my university life through various school programs. Introducing one of my bucket list items, I want to go a German university and study German reunification history through the exchange students program. The reason that I selected my present major, North Korea Studies, is to make the true unification of the two Koreas with my own ability. In the process to prepare my dream, Germany will give me many lessons. Germany was unified early than two Koreas. To study their unification policy and history, I will come up with the North and the South's unification methods. After the exchange student program, in Korea, I will share my experiences with my colleagues. Moreover, I will participate in unification meetings, so I will inform my ideas to many people. Because of the coronavirus, I can't pursue many things which I'm interested in. However, I will prepare to go to an exchange university, using this corona period. Then, when the pandemic is over, I will achieve my plans through a variety programs.

It has been about a year after COVID-19 started to spread globally and many of my plans are restrained because of the powerful pandemic. Therefore, when a coronavirus vaccine arrives next year, I will do my three most-wanted plans no matter what unexpected things happen. My first plan is learning Spanish. I always wanted to learn Spanish but I did not have free time to learn when I was in high school. Therefore, I will go to a Spanish academy regularly when the pandemic situation is solved and get a B1 license. My second plan is exercise harder and reach to next level. Currently, I started Jujitsu and it is very interesting. However, due to COVID-19, I could not go to the gym a lot. Although I am not good at Jujitsu right now, I will practice more and get a “gral”. My last plan is traveling many times. People say “you have to make good memories when you are young”. It is hard to make new and meaningful memories at home. Yet, when we go outside and travel, we can experience fresh and exotic cultures and even can grow up while confronting difficulties. Therefore, I am planning to travel not only in Korea but also to foreign countries. Sometimes, I feel like I am wasting time and my life is pointless because of the COVID-19 situation but I think I should be thankful about how healthy I am and the people I love. Next year, I will definitely do my 3 big plans, learn Spanish, get a “gral” at Jujitsu and travel a lot. I wish everybody can do whatever they want and spend a year more happy and meaningful next year.

When we eliminate the coronavirus in the Earth thanks to a vaccine, I hope to do three things in the future. First of all, I want to experience my college life and make new friends. Because the coronavirus first appeared in January, 2020, not only freshmen but also professors and other students lost the chance to join college life this year. In particular, students in my major could not have class offline, so my first plan is to participate in class with my classmates. Also, I strongly wish to join clubs like band and orchestra because it could be a great opportunity to enjoy my hobby with people in Dongguk University. Next, I will visit hospital and meet my grandfather. During the pandemic situation, it was hard to go to hospital or meet someone there. I am still looking forward to the time that people can freely have time with their family in the hospital. Finally, my plan is to try an exchange student program and go abroad. Although this program needs a lot of time and effort, I think it will be a great opportunity to improve my English skills and to learn about other countries' culture. Waiting for the year without coronavirus, I already started to prepare for an English test. In conclusion, when the pandemic is over, my plan is to experience my new school life with lots of friends, to meet my grandfather in hospital, and to go abroad as an exchange student.

In my opinion, finding a friend's new characteristics is like a puzzle. On the first day of middle school, I met my best friend, Jisu. Jisu and I shared common interests, like science, so we decided to go for a lunch together. Before eating lunch, she closed her eyes for a few seconds. As I thought that she was sleeping, I tried to wake her up. Jisu opened her eyes widely and explained to me that she was praying! I had never expected that Jisu who loves science believes in Jesus. Also, she is so shy that she never tries to present during the class. I strongly believed that I should protect my cute friend from evil things in the world. But one day some classmates said bad words to her and I saw how wise she is. She had pretended to ignore them at that moment, then she told everything to our teacher. She is not a shy girl, but a warrior who knows how to fix problems wisely. The more I get along with her, the more my friend's interesting traits are revealed. As a result, I'm looking forward to the future when I complete the puzzle of my friend. In the future, the relationship between me and Jisu seems bright. Nothing is more addicting than understanding our most precious person deeply. How about trying yours?

Do you believe in destiny? Perhaps some people believe it, and that includes me. Four years ago, when I was a freshman and went to Dongguk University for the first time, I met my best friend whose name is Hyeon-jeong. In my opinion, I came changing into a better person because of her, and there are several reasons why I think so. First of all, we have a lot of similar things such as personalities, studying habits, life cycle and so on. The most important thing I love is we are animal lovers, so we go to a dog protection center for volunteering activity twice a month. It makes me feel various emotions such as happiness, sadness and joy. Also, it makes me a warm-hearted person. The next reason is that she has a positive effect on me. She is the most considerate person that I have ever seen. For example, she always starts speaking after listening to other people's opinions first. I was really impressed by her behavior, so I kept trying to act like her. Hyeon-jeong had one personality problem which was she couldn't refuse anything. I tried to help her refuse something, and finally she improved. I think people can't live alone and they usually interact with friends. Thus, friends should have good effects on each other. I am really grateful to Hyeon-jeong, for she can do this. As a result, I will try to become a good person and have a positive effect on others.

My friend, Dongguk is “the hardest working person” that I know. I’m not joking, his real name is Dongguk Kim. He is even majoring in mechanical engineering in our university! When we were in middle school, my friends and I said to Dongguk, “How about going to Dongguk University?” as a joke, but no one expected it would come true. He does his best in every part of his life. Studying, exercise, playing a game, etc. He runs as fast as a cheetah, but I’m just one little turtle. It doesn’t mean he likes chattering. In fact, he is a quiet person. He always does his best alone and quietly. I think his characteristics are from his father. His father was a soldier when he was young, so house rules are a little bit strict for Dongguk and his sister. He never had any private tuition for the college entrance exam. Studying by himself, he passed many university exams that he applied for. He is tall, and not that handsome, but the ability inside of him makes him bright. We were in the same middle school, and now we are in the same university, and the same major. He was always good at everything during that period. He will go to ROTC after a few years. Because Dongguk is “the hardest working person” that I know, success is inevitable in his future.

I think a close friend is better than one hundred people. I have a friend who is very important to me. We met when we were 12 years old. She is my best friend, but sometimes she can be like my mom and sister. There are several reasons why she is important to me. First, she always listens to me carefully when I have some worries. I immediately go to her. She often couldn't give me the answer, but the problems were solved because of just talking. Secondly, she didn't want anything from me. If we want something between each other, we feel sad when those are not achieved. Maybe, it leads to breaking the relationship. However, she didn't want anything from me. Instead, she gives me everything. I think it is the most important point that she can be my best friend. Finally, she never crosses the line. We are often confused whether or not friends can accept and understand everything, so we sometimes make our friend sad because of bad behaviors. However, she always respects me and is sincerely happy because of my happiness. I think these three points are the key ways that we can keep our friendship. I will try to become a better friend to her, and I hope that our good friendship continues forever.

When I think about my best friend, I have one person that I always think of at first. She has a round face, big eyes, small nose and curly hair. At least in my eyes, she is so pretty and this is my best friend, Maeng Min-Ju. Since we were 7 years old, we have been friends, but the most important thing is that we are very different! We have very different personalities. I am shy and like to hide my feelings but she is active and easily gets angry. Additionally, she likes to study hard while I like sports activities. Even when it comes to food, our favorite food is different, too. For example, she likes spicy chicken and doesn't eat fried chicken but I eat only fried chicken! Like these things, we have more different characteristics than we have in common. However, we are best friends. We have been always together until she went to China because of her father's business until we were 14 years old. We used to go to the kindergarten, elementary school, middle school and church together. We also lived in the same apartment complex. She came back to Korea last year and I want to be her best friend forever and grow with her. Thanks to Min-Ju, I realized that two people who have opposite personality can be best friends with each other.

My best friends are Lee Youmi and Lee Minju. They are my friends who spend the most time with me, so they are my best friends. We met each other when we were in elementary school. Since we were 13 years old, we have been best friends. Because we spent a lot of time together, we have a lot in common like personality or hobby, etc. So, when we are together, we are very comfortable and feel relaxed. Of course, we have some different things. The first different thing is appearance. Each of us has particular features. Minju is the tallest person among us. So, her nickname is “bear”, because she is big. Youmi has a long face, so her nickname is “cucumber”. And I’m small and my face is round, so my nickname is “honey rice cake”. Because we have very different features, our pictures are very colorful and interesting. One more different thing is the way we react to another person. Minju gives me a calm and effective reaction. On the other hand, Youmi gives me an active and exciting reaction. Thanks to these different reactions, I can get advice from Minju and courage from Youmi. Minju and Youmi help me a lot and make me happy. So I hope that we are best friends forever.

I believe “best friend” means a person who fully understands me. We have many interactions with a lot of people, but becoming best friends is a special event. I have two best friends, and we first met in high school. In 2015, when we became friends, I did not think we can be best friends. We were so different. We always studied, played, exercised and ate together, but we preferred different subjects, games and food. At school, we had the same classes and teachers, but we finally chose different majors. I chose law and they chose English literature and architecture. Some people asked me, “Do you three fight?” My answer is “No”. This is because we always talk to each other. Talking a lot gives us a chance to understand others situations and moods. Once, when I failed to pass the university interview, they came to my house and gave me the courage to prepare for other exams. They did that because we spent a lot of time explaining our personal stories to each other. In conclusion, there are many normal friends who know your name, however best friends who understand everything about you are unique. Tell them your stories and get an amazing chance to become a best friend who will be by your side.

Best friends should share everything in my life! Even very private things, isn't it right? When I was young, I thought my best friend is "another me". So I told everything to her, and also I wanted her to tell me her secrets too. If my best friend didn't tell me her secrets, I got depressed and thought, "She didn't think of me as her best friend". But after I was grown up, I realized that there are people who don't want to reveal their secrets. Since a few months ago, I met a new best friend. And I finally know what a best friend really is. I learned that there should be a line between me and my best friend. My best friend can't be "me". Like we should have our own space. For example, think about a Venn diagram. Venn diagrams have common space, but also have their own spaces. When I was sad, my best friend emphasized my problem together, but he told me "think of your solution yourself". I was upset at that time because I thought he didn't want to help me. But later, I found my solution myself, and felt achievement. The problem is mine, so a friend should only have to share my feelings and emotions. "I" am the person who has to solve the problem. My best friend is also very studious and smart, he often helps me with my assignment. But when he helps me, he just gives me ideas. Searching it and writing it is my work. Because of this, I improved a lot. My best friend always suggests "only right directions" for me. He doesn't do everything for me. So I think best friend should not be my twin, or another me, but the one who helps me to set the right guideline.

There are lots of beautiful places in Korea, but today I want to introduce Yeosu. First of all, there is a lot of delicious food in Yeosu. Yeosu is nearby the sea, so we can eat fresh seafood, like raw fish. Second, we can see beautiful views in Yeosu. Like the song 'Yeosu's Night Sea', the night sea view is very romantic, because the sea and buildings' lights collaborate well. Third, an expo was held in Yeosu about 10 years ago. Through this, many people from other cities, even other countries came to Yeosu to visit Yeosu-expo. Since then, Yeosu has developed more and more. Fourth, Yeosu is a place where dinosaurs once lived. There are few places that are related to dinosaurs in Korea, but Yeosu has some key things about dinosaurs. Finally, Yeosu is well known for oil. Some decades ago, Yeosu developed its oil industry, so this has made rich. In conclusion, there are so many good things like delicious seafood, beautiful night views, expo, dinosaurs, and oil industry in Yeosu. However, Yeosu has more wonderful things than I have mentioned. I would like to write about Namsan Tower for it is my favorite place in Korea. To begin with, one of the reasons that I love this place is that I have lots of happy memories related to Namsan from when I visited Namsan Tower with my sister in April of 2019. We were so surprised because of its beautiful scenery. To be specific, we could see cherry blossom trees and flea markets for visitors on the path going up to Namsan Tower. Also, we were able to refresh ourselves by taking selfies and watching the scenes of nature. In addition, I walked the road up to Namsan from time to time for working out. Although it was a bit challenging for me to walk the steep road consistently, I could feel fulfillment and get rid of stress when I reached the top of Namsan. Also, Namsan Tower has a utility in terms of transportations. I can visit Namsan easily by using public transportation like the subway (line 4, 3) or by bus. Due to this benefit, I usually go to Namsan to work out. In conclusion, Namsan provides a lot of meaningful experiences to me. I can feel comfortable and happy and also reduce my stress when I spend time on Namsan. For these reasons, I often recommend people to visit Namsan whenever they want to tour or take a rest.

There are many wonderful places in Korea such as 'Haeundae', 'Namsan'. More importantly, I think the 'Hanok Village' in Jeonju is the best place to visit in Korea. Do you know the meaning of the word 'Hanok'? Hanok is a type of Korean traditional and historical architecture that was used in houses during the Josun Dynasty. First, the Hanok Village can show us ancient Korean wisdom. For example, there are lots of the 'ondol' heating system that make the inside of the houses warm and relate to Agungi of the outside. In addition, Hanok's 'Daechung floor' allows people to have a break time while feeling cool in summer. Secondly, the parts of Hanok village shows us the beauty of our traditional architecture. Proof that made by Giwa, which are the traditional bricks, shows flexibility and stable cool impressions. Thirdly, a Hanok Village expresses Korean characteristics. It includes our traditional and historical moments, Jeonju's nickname is the 'Korean historical village'. Finally, we can eat our traditional food like 'Bibimbap' and games such as 'Tuhoje' and 'Paengi' related in Hanok Village together, in Jeonju. In conclusion, the Hanok Village is the best place in Korea. Therefore, why don't we enjoy the Hanok Village in Jeonju this winter vacation?

There are many wonderful places in the world, but the reason why people like one place the most is a feeling or a memory associated with the place. The place where I got some good feelings and memories is Jeonju. When I was 18, I visited Jeonju for the first time with my high school classmates. We had a lot of schedules from our school trip, so we didn't have much time to enjoy Jeonju. However, sometimes when I see the photos from that Jeonju trip, I feel happy for my youth and my old friends' memories from the photos. Because of the good memories from the place, I visited Jeonju again when I was 20. With my friends, I enjoyed the JIFF (Jeonju International Film Festival) and visited Hanok-Maeul (Hanok Town) and wore a Hanbok, which is a Korean traditional outfit. Also, we ate delicious food like Jeonju bibimbap, and we had a great time. There are many great places to enjoy and delicious food to eat in Jeonju, what makes me think Jeonju is most favorite place in Korea is good memories and feelings with my friends. It means that it is convenient to get there. There are also lots of ways to go there, such as by subway or bus, so anyone can visit Namsan easily whenever they want. The second reason why I love Namsan are the “locks of love”. These are used by couples to symbolize their everlasting love. They attach a locker to the gate in Namsan and throw out the key. I love the notion that their love will be locked forever and not change. Finally, I like Namsan because of its wonderful views. As you ascend the mountain, you can look down upon the entire city of Seoul. Especially at night, the light in buildings in Seoul begin twinkling. I believe that it is the best view in Korea. To summarize, I love Namsan because of the location, the locks of love, and the beautiful views. Most cities' colors are gray. We can see many buildings, factories and cars around us easily, but there is a place where we can experience Korean tradition. I want to explain how wonderful Kyeongbok Palace is for three reasons. First of all, it is a good place to take a picture. There are many photo zones, such as King's chair, the entrance of Kyeongbok Palace, and a pond. If I want to get nice photos, I usually borrow a Hanbok which is a Korean traditional costume. Next, it is a traditional place in which Joseon's royal family kingdom lived. I can see Joseon's lifestyle, culture and building design. Finally, its scenes are very beautiful, especially at night. When it turns dark, staffs turn on many lights. If I walk along the walls with tiny lightbulbs, I can relax, be calm and free of stress. Kyeongbok Palace is a beautiful place to take pictures, experience Korea's tradition and walk at night. For these reasons, I think that Kyeongbok Palace is one of wonderful places in Korea and I love it.

Have you ever visited Korea? There are many wonderful places to visit in Korea. First, Seoul is the most popular city in Korea. Many Koreans live in this city so you can see their different lifestyles and cultures well. Especially, the Han River in Seoul has a beautiful landscape. You can ride a bike through the Han River road and eat delicious food like ramen. Second, Suwon Hwaseong is a great place to walk. Suwon Hwaseong is an old castle so you can see Korean history. A long time ago, King made the wall to protect his people from enemy. If you walk on the wall, you can see old houses and old culture because the wall is long and high. Finally, I want to recommend Jeju Island. If you like nature and downtown, you will like Jeju Island because there are many trees, animals and the sea. You can eat Hanrabong and drink green tea because they are famous in Jeju Island. You can feel the fresh air and green nature so you can heal. In sum, Seoul, Suwon Hwaseong, and Jeju Island are wonderful places to visit in Korea. I hope you visit these places when you come to Korea.

My favorite place in Korea is Busan. There are many wonderful things in Busan. The wonderful things are as follows. First, there are beautiful beaches in Busan, such as Haeundae and Gwangali. The blue sea and the wind make me feel comfortable. Last year, my friends and I visited Gwangali at night. There is a beautiful and shining bridge. It was awesome, so we took a lot of pictures. Therefore, we could make beautiful memories in Gwangali. Second, there are many distinctive streets like Bosu-dong book alley. The street is stacked in many books. If you go to the Bosu-dong book alley, you can feel Korea's mood of the 1980s and 1990s. The smell of old books is very nostalgic. In addition, you can hear the good music of memories. It is great to hear the music I like. Moreover, you can take pictures with many books in a studio. I took black and white pictures in there. I still love that because it has lovely memories with friends. Finally, there are attractive traditional markets. In the market, you can eat a lot of delicious foods! Busan is a wonderful place in Korea. To sum up, there are beautiful beaches, distinctive streets and traditional markets. I can't go to Busan right now because of the coronavirus; if the coronavirus is disappeared, I really want to go to Busan.

I think Everland is the most wonderful place to visit in Korea. Everland is the largest theme park in Korea, which is located in Yong-in. The reason Everland is a wonderful place is the specialty of its atmosphere; it can only be felt in Everland. They made an atmosphere and facility surrounded by mountains with the slogan of 'wonder land' and that makes you forget reality. Next, there are many attractions to make us feel thrilled. If you ride an attraction such as T-express, you can relieve stress through screaming out. Plus, an extra point is the joking and dancing of the Everland cast. Finally, it is an eco-friendly place that has many plants and many animals live in harmony. There are many gardens and forests in the middle of the land. It is also used by photo zone. Moreover, there are many animals we can see directly, such as pandas and giraffes. In sum, Everland is a place that makes you happy and gives unforgettable memories. I recommend you to visit Everland, which is the most wonderful place to visit in Korea.
